JUNETEENTH DAY PHOTO OP

“Standing on the Promise” was the theme of the 46th annual Juneteenth Day parade and festival held Monday along Martin Luther King Drive.

The Festival featured numerous vendors from food to toys, along with community organizations sharing helpful resources for residents.

Juneteenth Day is the oldest known celebration commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States.

The world-wide event, dating back to June 1865 began when Union soldiers landed at Galveston, Texas with the news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free.

Milwaukee’s Juneteenth Day event, organized by the Northcott Neighborhood House, is one of the oldest celebrations in the nation. Northcott’s mission is to support family stability, provide educational and recreational programs for youth, lessen neighborhood tensions, combat community deterioration, and provide various social services for the residents of Harambee and surrounding neighborhoods.

OPEN LETTER TO OUR READERS

Milwaukee Community Journal is an actual brick and mortar building, not just an on-line entity. I was downstairs reviewing our equipment in the storage office and it's like visiting a museum. Old relics, equipment, computers, software and past editions illuminate 40 years journaling the history of change.

Since our origin in 1976, we've moved with our audience. Today our readers are predominantly millennials, 18-40 years of age, shakers and movers, the buyers! They are buying homes, cars, raising families. They are eating “fresh,” active in politics, exercising and partying.

Our readers find us in print, with our twice-weekly editions in tenured retail outlets, churches and selective distribution spots. But they also read us online at milwaukeecommunityjournal.com We're in this to win this! We're dynamic....crisp clear....interactive...and to be honest - exploding with information that you want to read!

We're perfect for new and established advertisers! We want more local interaction and community written articles. We want to offer more millennial access to a proven community source.

This is who we are. But one thing is still deep on our hearts, and that is you've got to join our team. You're the community part of the Milwaukee Community Journal. Let's build together!
